Effective Date: 2025 | Contact: howdy@bymegburk.com

By downloading, installing, or using any font file distributed by Heatwave by Meg Burk, you agree to be bound by the terms of this End User License Agreement. If you do not agree to these terms, do not download, install, or use the font. This agreement is a license, not a sale. You acquire the right to use the font under the conditions below. Heatwave by Meg Burk retains all ownership and intellectual property rights.

1. Definitions

Font: The typeface software, including all associated files (OTF, WOFF, WOFF2), character designs, and any supplemental materials distributed by Heatwave by Meg Burk.

Web License: Permission to embed the Font on a single publicly accessible domain using the provided WOFF, WOFF2, and CSS files, based on the monthly page view tier purchased.

Licensee: The individual or legal entity that has purchased and holds the license.

User: Any individual human who installs or accesses the Font files.

2. License Types

Heatwave by Meg Burk offers four license types. Each is described below. Licensees should select the tier that accurately reflects their situation at the time of purchase. If your circumstances change after purchase, you are responsible for upgrading your license promptly.

2B. Web License

The Web License grants the right to embed the Font on one publicly accessible domain using the supplied WOFF, WOFF2, and CSS files. The Web License may be purchased independently of the Desktop License.

Web License tiers are based on the monthly page views of the licensed domain. The Licensee is responsible for self-reporting their page view tier accurately. If monthly page views grow beyond the licensed tier, the Licensee agrees to upgrade promptly. Heatwave by Meg Burk reserves the right to audit usage and request supporting documentation.

The Web License does not include:

- Use on more than one domain (a separate license is required per domain)
- Use in mobile applications, native apps, or ebooks
- Broadcast, video, or streaming use

Purchasing a license does not transfer ownership of the font or any intellectual property rights to the Licensee. Heatwave by Meg Burk retains all rights, title, and interest in and to the font at all times.

4. Restrictions

Unless explicitly permitted by this agreement, the Licensee may not:

- Install or use the font beyond the scope of the purchased license tier
- Share, distribute, lend, resell, sublicense, or otherwise transfer the font files to any third party
- Modify, alter, adapt, reverse engineer, decompile, or create derivative works from the font files
- Convert the font from one file format to another (e.g., from OTF to WOFF)
- Remove, alter, or obscure any copyright or proprietary notices embedded in the font files
- Use the font in any work that promotes hate speech, discriminatory content, illegal activity, or content harmful to individuals or groups
- Use the font in communications related to the armaments or nuclear industries without prior written approval

5. Self-Reporting and Tier Accuracy

Licensees are responsible for selecting the license tier that accurately reflects their organization's size, revenue, and usage at the time of purchase. Heatwave by Meg Burk operates on an honor system supported by audit rights. If your organization grows beyond the purchased tier after purchase, you are required to upgrade your license promptly. Heatwave by Meg Burk reserves the right to request documentation to verify tier accuracy at any time.

6. Multiple Users and Studios

All users within an organization who install or use the Font must be covered by the Desktop License tier purchased for that organization. Independent contractors working for or alongside a studio must either be covered by the studio's tier or hold their own license. Each party working on a project that requires Font installation must be covered by an appropriate license.

The Licensee is responsible for protecting font files from unauthorized copying or distribution. Licenses may be upgraded at any time. To upgrade a Desktop License to a higher tier, upgrade a Web License to a higher page view tier, or add a Logo Usage License, contact Heatwave by Meg Burk at hello@heatwavebymegburk.studio.
